

Star Learners

Congratulations to all our Star Learners this week. We are proud of you all!

Week ending : Thursday 12th March 2026

Wembury Class

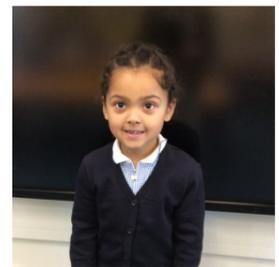

This week our star learner is M. She has shown enthusiasm for phonics and has been working hard to identify rhyming words. Good job!

Smeaton Class

Our star learner this week is E. He has been working hard to remember finger spaces when writing a sentence. He has also been coming into school with a smile every morning. Well done E—we are proud of you!

Firestone Class

Our star of the week is K. She is putting in so much effort with her learning—it is lovely to see. She is engaging with her peers and is positive towards her school day. Well done!

Mayflower Class

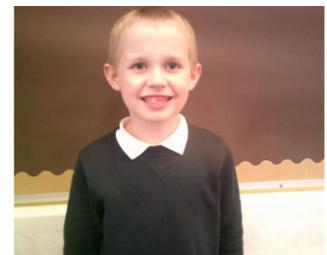

Our star learner this week is M. He has a wonderful passion for nature and loved sharing his knowledge during our science lesson. He also created a fantastic poster all about Steve Backshall. Well done!

Saltram Class

S is our star learner this week for his super writing! He has used lots of language features including similes and fronted adverbials. Well done S!

Mount Batten Class

T has had a great week and is Mount Batten's star learner. He is a well behaved student who follows instructions and always tries his best. I am very proud of his effort and positive attitude towards learning this week.

Mt Edgcombe Class

Our star learner this week is L. She has been working hard in all subjects and particularly hard on her writing. She has written a fantastic story this week and has been practicing joining her handwriting. Well done!

Dockyard Class

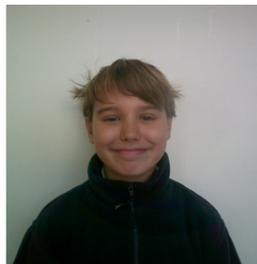

L is our star learner this week for building his confidence in his swimming lessons. He has worked really hard for the last 3 weeks. Well done L!

Burrator Class

Our star learner this week is S. She always follows the school rules, is respectful and completes everything to a high standard. Well done - keep up the hard work!

Raleigh Class

L is our star learner this week for always being respectful and supporting others in his role as Digital Leader. Well done L, keep up the good work!
