

Star Learners

Congratulations to all our Star Learners this week. We are proud of you all!

Week ending : Friday 9th May

Brahms Class

L is our star learner this week. He has been working so hard on his counting and showing real resilience when faced with a challenge! What an absolute superstar you are L. Well done!

Mozart Class

G is our star learner this week. She has had a fantastic start at Beechwood and has settled in wonderfully. She has been working so hard in her English lessons and produced lovely work

Price Class

Our star learner is M for always working hard in all of her learning. M has been writing a narrative about a girl called Angel who goes on an adventure to Dark Cave. M has also been working hard in her maths.

Vivaldi Class

M is our star this week. She has consistently shown improvement with her effort in writing. It has been wonderful to see as well as seeing how proud M is at what she is achieving.

Zimmer Class

Zimmer's star learner this week is G for always being ready, respectful and safe. She is a pleasure to teach and has a great attitude to learn. Well done G!

Lloyd-Webber Class

Our star learner this week is I for settling in so well into a new class. He has worked really hard in all subject areas and demonstrated our school values consistently,

Bernstein Class

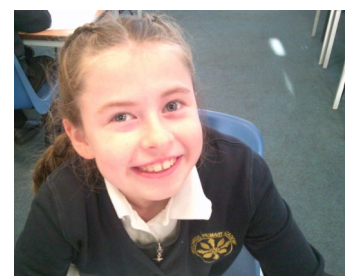

L is our star of the week for her super times tables. She has made incredible progress this year and is now getting 25/25 consistently. Well done L!

Dun Class

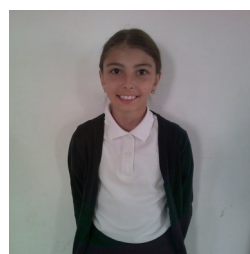

Our star learner this week is M for her hard work on an adventure story. She has been so excited to share it with everyone. Well done M!

Holst Class

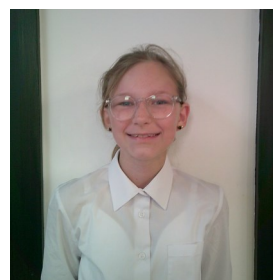

E has consistently trying her best in all subjects. This week she has independently written some lovely descriptive sentences to describe the setting for her own survival narrative.

Elgar Class

Elgar's star learner is E. She is a model student who exerts exceptional effort and care into her learning daily. Well done E!

Tchaikovsky Class

E is our star this week for excelling in recent SATs assessments and for always bringing a positive attitude to our classroom each day. Thank you E!
