

Star Learners

Congratulations to all our Star Learners this week. We are proud of you all!

Week ending : Friday 4th July

Brahms Class

S is our star learner this week for trying very hard with her letter sounds during Read, Write, Inc. Well done S!

Mozart Class

J is our star of the week. She is always happy, friendly and smiley. She always shares with her friends and tries hard. J has also been working hard on her phonics.

Price Class

D is our star for always showing that she is ready to learn. She has been working hard in her English and she has written a brilliant narrative about a girl called Little Blue.

Vivaldi Class

E is our star learner this week. She has only been at Beechwood for a few weeks, but has settled in so well. She has put a lot of effort into all of her learning and is a pleasure to have in class.

Zimmer Class

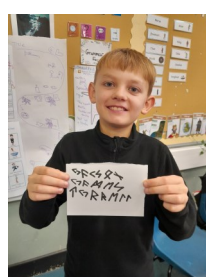

R is our star learner this week. She has worked hard in all her learning. She published a four page story based on "The Last Wolf". Well done R, keep it up!

Lloyd-Webber Class

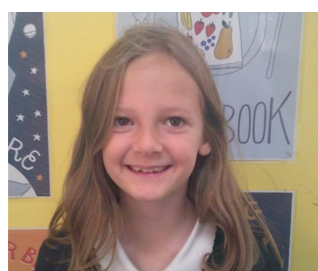

S is our star this week for her kind attitude towards everyone in our classroom and her consistent fantastic behaviour in school. Well done S!

Bernstein Class

J is our star learner this week for always showing RRS behaviours and including lots of features within his writing. Well done J—keep up the good work!

Dun Class

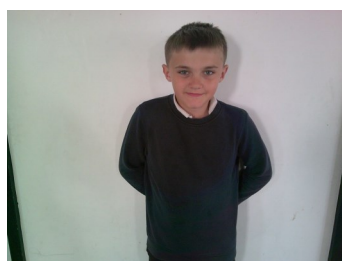

L is our star learner this week for her collaborative skills in orienteering. Well done L!

Holst Class

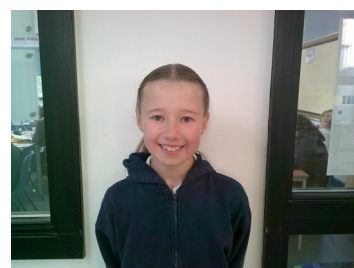

E is our star learner this week. She has used great vocabulary in her character description. Furthermore, it has been wonderful to see her confidence grow.

Elgar Class

L is our star learner this week. He consistently demonstrates the school values and displays fantastic manners. Well done L!

Tchaikovsky Class

M is this week's star learner for her maturity and responsibility in our end of year 6 production. Well done. Keep up the good work!
