

Star Learners

Congratulations to all our Star Learners this week. We are proud of you all!

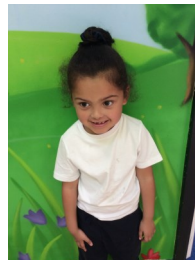

Week ending : Friday 16th May

Brahms Class

A huge well done to M! She is our star of the week for settling so well and making new friends.

Mozart Class

A huge well done to K. She is our star of the week. She has been working hard at all of her rainbow challenges and also made a brilliant car with recycled materials.

Price Class

Our star learner is R for settling into her new class and routines really well. She has also worked hard in her English writing this week, writing some fantastic sentences. Well done!

Vivaldi Class

D is our star learner this week. He consistently works hard at all subjects and quietly gets on with what he needs to be doing. He is becoming more engaged with his independent reading.

Zimmer Class

S is our star learner because he has been sharing his knowledge of Christianity during RE. He knew all about Matthews Story and forgiveness. Well done S!

Lloyd-Webber Class

T is our star for his fantastic leadership skills in rounders. He really impressed me with the confident and kind way he took the lead and organised the class during a challenging game.

Bernstein Class

L has shown incredible computing knowledge and creating a brilliant survival narrative. He persevered and came up with lots of brilliant ideas for his setting, problem and resolution. Well done L!

Dun Class

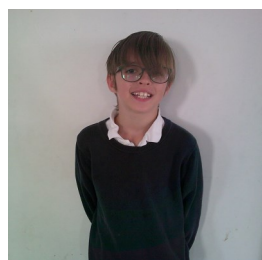

Our star learner this week is L for her fantastic survival narrative which included lots of grammar features. Well done L!

Holst Class

L has shown a positive attitude towards her learning this week. She has shown brilliant resilience towards her timetables and has been an active participant in the timetables club. Keep it up!

Elgar Class

Elgar's star learner is T. He has consistently worked hard towards his SATS and has shown phenomenal progress. Well done T!

Tchaikovsky Class

All of Tchaikovsky class are stars this week for doing their best in SATS week and showing enthusiasm for the Year 6 play, Well done!
