

Star Learners

Congratulations to all our Star Learners this week. We are proud of you all!

Week ending : Friday 6th February 2026

Wembury Class

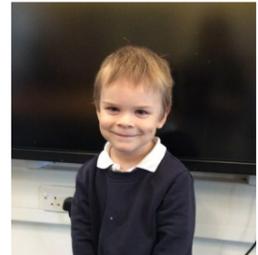

Our star learner is N. He has been trying very hard to learn lots of English words through our story of the week about a giraffe who can't dance. Well done N!

Smeaton Class

B-L is our star learner this week. She listens carefully and sits quietly, eager for her lessons. She consistently uses excellent manners and shows great respect to those around her. She also takes pride in her handwriting.

Firestone Class

G is our star learner as he has been a super star all week. He has engaged in all of his learning and even asked for more work. He has been helpful to his friends and teachers. Well done G, it has been fantastic to see.

Mayflower Class

L is our star learner this week because he has been a super role model in Mayflower class. He follows all the golden rules and has been trying hard in all his learning. Well done L!

Saltram Class

A is our star learner this week for his brilliant work in maths. He has been working hard to measure, not only with cubes, but also with his ruler. Well done A, we are so proud of your effort and progress.

Mount Batten Class

R has worked hard to overcome friendship related challenges this week. She has shown kindness, listened to others and made positive choices when playing with her peers. Keep up the wonderful effort!

Mt Edgcumbe Class

A is our star learner this week. He always tries his best with his learning and is a kind, positive member of our class. He has been working particularly hard on his writing this week and has produced a fantastic report.

Dockyard Class

L is our star learner this week for making a concerted effort to focus on work across the curriculum and avoiding distractions all week. Well done L!

Burrator Class

Our star learner this week is R. She has been working exceptionally hard and has made fantastic progress in her learning. Well done R, keep up the good work!

Raleigh Class

S is our star learner this week for always being ready, respectful and safe. She has been a great friend to others this year and continues to be a fantastic role model. Well done S, keep up the good work!
