

Star Learners

Congratulations to all our Star Learners this week. We are proud of you all!

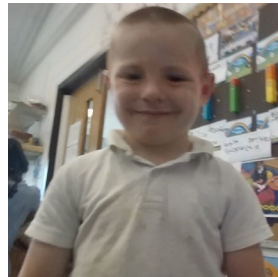

Week ending : Friday 20th June

Brahms Class

M is our star learner this week. She has been trying really hard with her phonics and joining in circle time.

Mozart Class

J is our star of the week. He has been working hard across the provision and has completed all of the challenges set. Well done J!

Price Class

A is our star learner for working really hard in her Year 2 SATs this week. She has also worked really hard in English writing a brilliant narrative about a girl out hunting for a bunny. Well done!

Vivaldi Class

S is our star learner. He always gives 100% to his learning and then wants to do more. It is wonderful to have him in our class. He is also so kind and caring.

Zimmer Class

L is our star learner. He has had a fantastic week, trying really hard. Miss Vosper has been impressed with his resilience and enthusiasm.

Lloyd-Webber Class

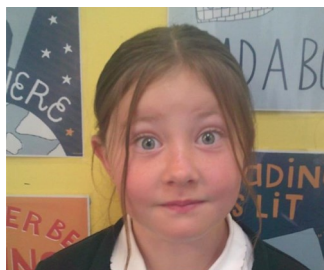

A is our star learner this week for his hard work in all lessons and his great ready to learn attitude always. Well done A!

Bernstein Class

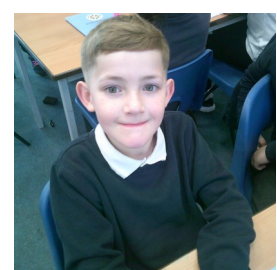

M is our star this week for being a role model on our trip to Plymbridge woods. He was consistently demonstrating Ready, Respectful, Safe behaviours. Well done M!

Dun Class

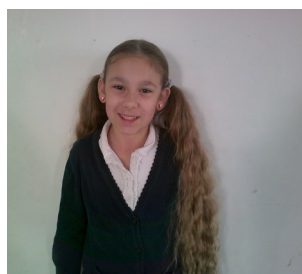

This week our star learner is S for her brilliant Macbeth letter and for her collaboration in orienteering. Well done S!

Holst Class

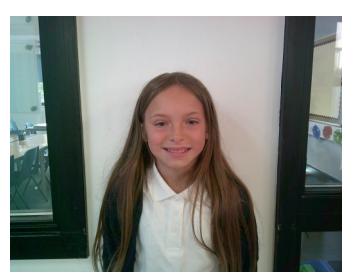

T is our star learner this week. He has shown fantastic innovation skills to build a pully system at Plymbridge Woods.

Elgar Class

S is our star learner this week. She is always ready, respectful and safe and always puts 100% effort into everything she does. Well done!

Tchaikovsky Class

S is our star learner this week for being excellent in our rehearsals for the end of Year 6 production. She projects her voice and has really taken to her role. Well done S!
