

Mossy Carpet Art project

Gifted artists from each year group got together with a local artist.

The children had to examine moss with microscopes before they did observational drawings. They then created some pompoms to attach to a carpet which will be displayed as part of a larger art project at a location to be confirmed.

Well done to everyone who took part.

