

We used jelly and fresh fruit to monitor the impact on setting

We participated in an investigation looking at particles and how this relates to the air we breathe.

Science Week — Year 6

This week the children have been participating in Science experiments

